surrounding Austin, was opened by the reading of a resolution adopted by the executive board of the association. In part the resolution said: "We discourage and emphatically declare our opposition to people of the North who do not understand conditions in the South intermeddling with our relationship. If we are left to ourselves we will in time adjust all our differences for the good of all concerned."
"We tender our services to local and State authorities in allaying this nervousness and uneasiness now existing between the races."

No date has been set for the conference, but it is expected that it will occur early in October, after the President has completed his Western trip and the date may be announced before the President leaves Washington.

It was stated at the White House yesterday that the President will make the preliminary plans for the conference while on his tour, and that the representatives of the employees and employers will be notified as soon as possible in order that they can make preparations to come to Washington.

All classes of industry will be represented at the conference, it was learned. Farmers should also be included, Senator Kenyon, of Iowa, believes.

Now Is the Time to Advertise

PRESENT ADVERTISERS—Increase your space.

PROSPECTIVE ADVERTISERS—Bring your plans to a head and start advertising immediately.

Advertising began as an afterthought of business, but became the forethought. Just as it was a part of the forethought of war that insured victory, so advertising must become the forethought of peace to insure prosperity.

Advertising Anticipates; Advertising Discounts; Advertising Compels. Advertising is the surest, quickest, and most economical selling force known to industry to-day.

The power of an idea multiplied in millions of minds moves governments—or goods—as the case may be.

The Department of Labor urges more advertising by merchants and manufacturers to insure the present prosperity of the Nation.
